

Project ideas for the Australian animals series

Right now on the English Learning Zone there are 12 short texts about some of the most interesting animals in the world! Some of these animals are weird, some are intelligent and some are very dangerous but they are all really interesting so why not use these interesting animals to improve your English? Here are some ideas for what you can do with the texts apart from just reading them.

Activity A – Vocabulary list

Find 3 words from each text that you don't know and use this table to help you learn them. Your teacher will be happy to correct your table if there is a mistake!

Word	Part of speech (verb, noun, adjective etc)	Relates to which animal?	Explanation of the word in English
Venomous	Adjective	Inland terrapin	Poisonous

Use this dictionary to help you. <https://dictionary.cambridge.org/dictionary/learner-english/>

Activity B – Write about an interesting animal you know about for Spain

Use some words you learned from the char ni activity A to help you prepare a short paragraph about an animal you are interested in. For example you could write about the Iberian Lynx or the Monk Seal. If you write a profile of animal using our texts as models, bring it an show your teacher!

Activity C – Story

Imagine if a Western Red Kangaroo or one of the other animals came to Valladolid by accident? What would happen? Write a story, use the vocabulary chart from activity A to help you and show it to your teacher.
